dissatisfied party. The circle of external users is so wide that no systematization and classification gives in (any person can practically be them).

Revealing the identity of the criminal, it is necessary also in all cases at investigation of a crime to find out motive and the purpose. It is important not only for definition of fair punishment by court for deeds, but also promotes full disclosure of a crime. Data on the most widespread motives and the purposes of commission of crimes are used at promotion of versions concerning the subject and the subjective party of a crime, and also at the organization of purposeful search of the criminal.

Features of juvenile crime

Abstract. In this article, author describes the peculiarities of crimes which are committed by minors . Nowadays juvenile crime under different circumstances is rapidly growing. Children are our future , that's why this article is important and interesting to consider.

Keywords: juvenile crime, minors, criminal, juvenile.

Children upbringing has always been considered, and will be the main task of every individual to maintain a stable future. Children are reflection of the future, of what they grow, depends on our present after a certain period of time. Therefore, one of the main objectives of every state is to maintain the stability sufficient conditions for each child. Adolescents whose behavior deviates from the socially accepted rules, norms of conduct, are called hard or intractable. Such adolescents are physically fit but not educated and not trained. They are not only bad at school but they resist educational influences, and are characterized by a deep alienation from family, school, influence of antisocial, criminal groups, serious social deviations: violate discipline at school, not wanting to learn, conflicting with teachers, with peers, with parents, dropping out of school, consider themselves losers, wanders, drinks, breaks laws.

Juvenile crime has become very urgent problem of our, and not only of our state.

What is a minor crime. Juvenile delinquency is a set of crimes in society which are committed by persons aged 14 to 17 years. Juvenile delinquency is an integral part of criminality in General, but also has its own specific features, it can be regarded as an independent object of the criminological investigation.

Need of such allocation due to the peculiarities of somatic, mental and moral development of minors, as well as their social immaturity. In adolescence, young adulthood at the time of moral identity formation, the accumulation of experience, including negative which can not be detected or appeared with significant delay. Crime is extremely negative, yet inevitable phenomenon of social life. "The criminal legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan specifically title VI provides: "Criminal liability of minors" of the criminal code, which is generally consistent with the principles of humanism and justice contained in the UN
