Student Fellowships of the Department of Molecular Biology and Genetics, KazNU awarded on April 16, 2018

19 апреля 2018, 06:10

This year joint monetary fund of the Department of Molecular Biology and Genetics shared with 20 most motivated, actively working in research and internationally mobile students has reached 13 795 000 Tenges ($ 44 500). On 16 April Drs. Aitkazha Bigaliev, Nazgul Altybayeva and Zaure Aytasheva have announced and handed the awards listed below and corresponding certificates. At the ceremony in the directorate hall, two students were mentioned as the winners of international grants comprising 86% of the total awards sum granted by the sponsors and academia this year. Below is the list of the winners and their sponsors. Professor Galymkaiyr M. Mutanov, Rector of al-Farabi Kazakh National University has noticed that this example of granting student fellowships and travel grants may show that KazNU does belong to the range of socially responsible universities.
