

On November 13, 2015 among 1 year students of specialty. "Foreign philology" KazNU was held a literary party.in the frame of The project "100 books" This event was devoted to 125 –th anniversary of the birth of the English master of detective genre Agatha Christie / 1890- 1976 /, which was marked by the literary world community on September 15.Its goal was to familiarize students with the biography and works of Agatha Christie.

In The Guinness Book of Records Agatha Christie has been marked as the best-selling author of all times By these days have been sold about 2 million copies of her novels.

The event was held in English. Students Toktar Balzhan, Ozay Elmira made presentations in English, describing in detail the main stages of writer's biography The third presentation prepared by Khasenova Akmaral presented the creative activity of Agatha Christie There were also marked the most popular novels and favorite characters of the writer - Miss Maple and Mr. Poirot.

Aytkalieva Assel held a quiz about the biography and works of the famous writer, the winners were awarded prizes.

Then Toktar Balzhan showed a video about the life and work of the writer.which aroused a great interest of students.

In the end of the event, students of speciality . "Foreign philology" showed the audience a performance of several British jokes. It was noted that in the works of Agatha Christie's has always been a place for humour..

Teachers of the Foreign languages Chair of KazNU Kaliyeva A.Zh., Tleugabylova Z.A., Almabaeva G.B

