International Journal of Mathematics and Physics

International Journal of Mathematics and Physics

The International Journal of Mathematics and Physics is a peer-reviewed international journal covering all branches of mathematics and physics. The Journal particularly welcomes papers on modern problems of mathematics and physics, Calculus Mathematics, Algebra and Mathematical Analysis, Differential Equations and Mechanics, Informatics and Mathematical Modeling, Calculus of Approximations and Program Systems, Astronomy and Space Research, Theoretical Physics and Plasma Physics, Chemical Physics and Radio Physics, Thermophysics, Nuclear Physics, Nanotechnology.
