

Al-Farabi Kazakh National University
Faculty of International Relations
Chair of International Law
6M020200 - International law»
Educational program in specialty
Syllabus

1. Genesis, current state and development trends of international criminal law.
2. The concept of international criminal law.
3. The subject and methods of international criminal law.
4. Sources of International Criminal Law
5. The main objectives of international criminal law.
6. Common principles of international law in international criminal law.
7. The main sectoral principles of international criminal law.
8. Crime on international criminal law and its signs.
9. Composition of the crime of international criminal law.
10. Classification of crimes under international criminal law and its grounds.
11. The stages of the crime and complicity in the crime of international criminal law.
12. Responsibility in international criminal law.
13. The problem of liability of legal entities and states in international criminal law.
14. Circumstances of exemption from liability under international criminal law.
15. The constitutional priority of international law.
16. International criminal law as a source of criminal law of the Russian Federation.
17. Implementation of international criminal law.
18. Legal relationship in international criminal law, its types.
19. Direct application of international criminal law.
20. The mediated application of international criminal law.
21. The concept of crimes against the peace and security of mankind under international criminal law.
22. Aggression and the threat of aggression in international criminal law.
23. Genocide as a crime under international criminal law.
24. Ecocide as a crime under international criminal law.
25. Apartheid in international criminal law.
26. War crimes under international criminal law.
27. Mercenary in international criminal law.
28. The notion of conventional crimes in international criminal law.
29. Slavery and the slave trade in international criminal law.
30. Sexual exploitation of international criminal law.
31. Torture, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.
32. Terrorist crimes in international criminal law.
33. Capture of hostages in international criminal law.

34. Crimes against the security of air transport under international criminal law.
35. Piracy in international criminal law.
36. Illicit trafficking in general dangerous subjects in international criminal law.
37. Illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances in international criminal law.
38. Attacks on cultural property under international criminal law.
39. Illicit traffic in pornographic products under international criminal law.
40. Legalization of criminal proceeds under international criminal law.
41. Corruption in international criminal law.
42. Counterfeiting under international criminal law.
43. International cooperation in combating crime.
44. Legal assistance in criminal matters.