Assignment form

Online webinar via Microsoft Teams

Task 1. Ask students to read the email from a British girl called Amy to a friend who lives in Italy. Encourage them to underline the four pieces of information that Amy asks for. Check their answers in open class.

Task 2. Ask students to look at the style of the email in exercise 1 and say what things in it are typical of informal emails. Elicit answers from different students around the class

Task 3. Ask students to look at the Writing bank and match the topics with the groups of expressions. Elicit more expressions to add to each group.

Task 4. In pairs, students imagine they have received Amy’s email. Ask them to make notes about the information she wants. Draw their attention to the example.
