

---

2nd Educational Forum for Central Asia 2015

25 March, 2015
University of Sussex
Brighton, UK

Programme

15 min	Discussant: Dr Peeter Mehisto, Institute of Education, University College London
15 min	Q&A
13:00 - 14:00 1:00 hour	Lunch (please check your lunch voucher provided at the registration desk) Lunch will be served in the Dine Central, Bramber House, 1 st floor
14:00 - 14:30 30 min	Poster Presentations (Meeting House, ground floor) 01: Teaching and learning English at Nazarbayev Intellectual school by Aliya Khassineyeva, EdD student, Durham University, Bolashak scholar 02: Comparing classroom assessment models in the UK and Kazakhstan by Balausa Yermenova, Bolashak programme intern, University of Sussex, Nazarbayev Intellectual School in Oskemen 03: Exploring issues of the narrative writing in physics lessons by Zhangozy Ongarbaiuly, Bolashak programme intern, University of Sussex, Nazarbayev Intellectual School in Kokshetau 04: The importance of Human Capital in Economic Growth by Abu Mukhammedov, Bolashak programme intern, University of Lester 05: Kazakhstan joining the European Educational Space: problems and solutions by Bauyrzhan Yessengeldin and Akmaral Syrgakbayeva, Bolashak programme interns, University of Leicester 06: What can be taken from the British education for the progress of Kazakhstan education? by Roza Orazalina, Bolashak language course programme, Brunel University 07: The role of technology in English Language education in secondary schools in Kazakhstan by Assel Bazilgalamova, MA in International education, University of Leicester and Shymyrbekova Aigul, Bolashak programme intern, University of Leicester 08: Professional education for future professionals by Zhanyl Bekmurzayev and Ainur Issayeva, Bolashak programme interns, University of Lester
14:30 - 16:15 1:45 min	Paper Session III: Contemporary issues within Higher education institutions in Kazakhstan Moderator: Askat Tleuov, PhD candidate, University of Bath Discussant: Prof Colleen McLaughlin, Department of Education, University of Sussex

15 min	0301: Kazakhstani universities in world rankings (proposal) Akmaral Syzdykova, MA International Journalism, Cardiff University
15 min	0302: Developing ICT skills in the Pedagogical Institutes of Kazakhstan: proposal for improving the outcomes of the national 'e-learning' project Nurmukhammed Dossybayev, University College London, Bolashak scholar
15 min	0303: To what extent is the leadership distributed at Pedagogical College in Kazakhstan? Bolat Nassygyzy, Master student, University of Warwick, Bolashak scholar
15 min	0304: Professional Development of Academics from Higher Education Institutions: Experiences of offering an internship programme at the University of Leicester Palitha Edirisingha and Tony Daniels, University of Leicester
15 min	0305: Internship in the UK as one way for teachers learning and professional development of Kazakhstani teachers Narken Burkenov, Bolashak Internship programme, University of Sussex, Nazarbayev Intellectual School in Semey
15 min	Discussant: Prof Colleen McLaughlin, Department of Education, University of Sussex
15 min	Q&A
16:15 - 16:40	Certificate presentation
16:40 - 16:50	Announcing the host University of the next Forum; Signing the Protocol
16:50 - 17:10	Performance by Kazakhstani students: The Kazakh traditional musical composition Kui 'Bal' by Maxat Syzdykov, Bolashak programme intern, University of Sussex The Kazakh traditional dance by members of the Kazakh Society of the University of Sussex
17:10 - 17:20	Review and Closing
17:30 onwards	Time for social at the Falmer Bar, Falmer House