

The International Camel Symposium

"Camel Science & Development for Sustainable Livelihoods"

Garissa / Kenya - June 7th to 11th 2010

Organised by the

KENYA AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE (KARI)

Under its' Kenya Arid & Semi-arid Lands Research Program (KASAL)

And the

KENYA CAMEL ASSOCIATION (KCA)

In partnership with

Vétérinaires sans Frontières Suisse (VSF)

University of Nairobi (UoN)

Millennium Development Goal (MDG)

Under the scientific patronage of the

International Society of Camelid Research and Development (ISOCARD)

This is to certify that

Dr. Akhmetsadykova Shinara

participated in the International Camel Symposium and presented an oral paper on:

« Camel milk pollution (heavy metals, pesticides and radionuclides) in Kazakhstan »

She also presented a poster on:

« Pollution Index and potential detoxification of fermented
camel milk face to heavy metals »

D. M. Mwangi (PhD)

KASAL NATIONAL COORDINATOR

