Appendix 4: Intercultural communication questionnaire additional responses

Reasons for studying English

- I'll need it for my future career.
- it will allow me to meet and converse with more and varied people from many different cultures
- it will allow me to meet and converse with native speakers of English.
- it will allow me to travel to many different countries and to learn about different cultures.
- it will allow me to have a fun and enjoyable experience.
- it will make me a more knowledgeable person.
- it will allow me to get good grades at university.
- other people will respect me more if I have knowledge of the English language.

Ranking factors that help in intercultural communication through English

- Knowing about the way other non-native English speakers use English
- Knowing about the culture of the non-native English speaker you are communicating with
- Knowing about intercultural communication
- Having a native-like pronunciation.
- Using correct native-like grammar
- Knowing about the relationship between language and culture
- Knowing about the culture of native English-speaking countries

- Knowing about the way other non-native English speakers use English
- Having a native-like pronunciation.
- Using correct native-like grammar
- Knowing about intercultural communication
- Knowing about the culture of the non-native English speaker you are communicating with
- Knowing about the relationship between language and culture
- Knowing about the culture of native English-speaking countries

Attitudes towards intercultural communication

