groups assign severe punishment, and vice versa to have mercy on violated the law for the first time, sincerely repentant, committed crime is an innocuously to people, to society, to the country, is humanitarian side of the new Code. One more side of the humanitarian principles of the new Criminal Code is a special item for teenagers' criminal liability. There are items of exemption from liability according to their age sensor and psychological development of teenagers. The fourth, there is much economic pressure to committed a criminal offence and to offender. If we count the imposed fines for criminal offences are from 25 monthly calculation index (MCI) to 500 MCI, for crime from 500 MCI to 10 000 MCI, but in the articles for taking bribe, giving bribe and to mediate bribery appointed punishment in accordance with the Code sanctions.

In conclusion to prevent the so-called crimes, upbringing and humanization is the basic rule of the new Criminal Code. The new Criminal Code complies with the international legislation, law standards. To be part of the thirty developed countries, as our President says, is to stand in the developed countries row.

The international system of copyright protection in the Republic of Kazakhstan

Abstract: In this article questions of protection of copyright in the Republic of Kazakhstan are considered.

Keywords: protection, copyright, internationally, intellectual.

In all periods of human history, the result of the work of writers, poets, artists, scientists, became the basis of human and spiritual wealth of society. In a market economy, literature, art and science, as well as the results of creative activity, the primary means of human and spiritual life of society, and work only becomes an indicator of the level of development of market relations in the form of a special kind of turnover was formed as an object. Objective processes in the world, primarily in the rapid development of scientific and technological progress and spiritual well-being is not only the creator, as well as opening up new horizons for consumers. In this regard, the famous American composer, actor, producer B. Sherman's words: "What a creative person in the country to find out what the most respected way — easy to get acquainted with these copyright laws of the state". In the West, the scope of the copyright pays more attention from the government to be one of the developed countries have opened the way to become world leaders in the field of industrial products [1].

Cash, which is equivalent to 500 billion. Equal to that of the US dollar clothing, cars, computers, and more than the total number of aircraft, including for export. As the Republic of Kazakhstan, we define the level of intellectual property in the future welfare of the citizens of the state, has gained importance as a valuable resource forehead. Such as the former Soviet Union, the national intellectual property system began to take shape after the country gained independence and autonomy. Thus, in accordance with the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Kazakhstan in 1992 on the basis of copyright law department of the All-Union Agency of Kazakhstan organized by the State Agency on Copyright and Related Rights. In 1996 he composed the State Agency on Copyright and Related Rights "Copyright and Related Rights" (the Copyright Law) Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan. Currently, the main function of copyright in 2001, organized by the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Kazakhstan entrusted to the Committee on Intellectual Property Rights. One of the main goals of this organ of state regulation of relations in connection with the observance of the rights of authors, legal literacy, as well as supervision of persons with intellectual property. Until recently, most practical day-to-day intellectual property rights for citizens who do not have good legal concept. Currently, the World Intellectual Property Organization carried out a number of international treaties, agreements and conventions, is a full member, nevertheless found that there was a lack of copyright protection in the country and internationally. Thus, the management representatives of the European union of private companies operating in
